

Association of Sports Institutes in Asia (ASIA) 4th ASIA Congress

Reflections and Future Directions of High Performance Sports Institutes
Aspire Academy, Doha, Qatar
5 - 7 November 2019

About ASIA

ASIA is a non-profit, non-government organisation established in February 2015; it is the region's first association bringing together high performance training centres in Asia. The ASIA develops its main activity at the Asian level with the aim to foster the best practices in the area of long-term Asian athlete development through a comprehensive model of collaboration, exchange of expertise and networking opportunities for all organisations involved in elite performance in across all of Asia.

Highlights of 4th ASIA Congress

The 4th ASIA Congress will bring together the leading international and regional sports performance practitioners to share insights and spark discussion on the following topics:

- Considerations in Youth Athlete Development
- Developing high performance environments
- Implementation of sports technology, research and innovation into performance programmes
- Sports Specific Forums

Congress Venue

The 4th ASIA Congress will be hosted in the Football Performance Centre, Aspire Academy in Doha, Qatar.
